of the

Miami Consolidated Mines Co. Stock

That conservative investors would immediately realize the great possibilities of this proposition we knew, but the instant response we received far exceeded our expectations. The local allotment will not last long and we advise those who desire to participate in this new consolidation to get their stock at once.

Management

Operations of this company will be conducted under the management of able and efficient mining men of acknowledged ability and efficiency, working under the direction of Major J. H. Dockweiler, whose judgment and ability in mining affairs is unquestioned. The financial affairs of the company will be entrusted to a finance committee, on which are John S. Cook and Harry Lefkovits, whose financial standing is well known.

The Property

The Company owns approximately 1200 acres in the "Miami Copper Belt" as set by the U. S. Geological Survey and on which are the Inspiration Consolidated Copper Company, the Miami Copper Company and the Inspiration Needles Copper Company. The geological formation is identical with that of the ground owned by the three big companies named.

CAPITALIZATION

The capital stock is $2,500,000.00. The stock is fully paid and non-assessable. There is no preferred stock. The Company has no outstanding bonds and has ample working capital and no debts. The issue has been passed upon and the title to the property has been approved by Hon. Eugene W. Miller, a leading attorney of Gila County Bar.
